

MCR

Please read each statement and respond by choosing your personal level of agreement or disagreement and then darkening the appropriate corresponding bubble on the bubble sheet. Your responses will remain confidential and anonymous. Thank You for your time

	Strongly Agree (A)	Agree (B)	Disagree (C)	Strongly Disagree (D)
1. I almost always try to understand customs of diverse cultures.....	A	B	C	D
2. I look for opportunities to interact with different cultures.....	A	B	C	D
3. I would welcome an opportunity to live with a classmate from another country.....	A	B	C	D
4. When I meet someone from an unfamiliar culture, I almost always try to find out more about their culture.....	A	B	C	D
5. I would welcome an opportunity to take some of my college courses in another country.....	A	B	C	D
6. Adapting to the customs of another country would not be a problem for me.....	A	B	C	D
7. I enjoy hearing different languages spoken.....	A	B	C	D
8. It is important for me to learn a language other than my own.....	A	B	C	D
9. World interests tend to be more important than the interests of my country.....	A	B	C	D
10. I would enjoy working with coworkers who are from other countries.....	A	B	C	D
11. I have many friends of different ethnicities.....	A	B	C	D
12. I feel that in order for a person to become an American he/she should be willing to give up some of their loyalties to their country of origin .....	A	B	C	D
13. Although individuality is important in the United States, excessive differences in beliefs can hurt the society.....	A	B	C	D
14. The different language groups in America are beneficial to the cultural development of the U.S.....	A	B	C	D
15. It should not be too easy to become an American citizen.....	A	B	C	D
16. A person=s work ethic tends to be related to their cultural upbringing.....	A	B	C	D
17. I see nothing wrong with a person wishing to live in a neighborhood composed of only one ethnic group.....	A	B	C	D
18. Citizens who have different national backgrounds should be encouraged to retain their various customs and traditions.....	A	B	C	D
19. It pleases me to see such a great variety of religions in the United States.....	A	B	C	D
20. Some people are too insistent on retaining their customs and traditions while living in the U.S.....	A	B	C	D
21. I am pleased that various ethnic groups raise their children in different ways.....	A	B	C	D

- |   |   |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 22. Students who do not speak English should be given an opportunity in the public schools to be instructed in their native language.....                         | A | B | C | D |
| 23. The fact that various ethnic groups raise their children with different customs and traditions does not pose a problem to our public schools.....             | A | B | C | D |
| 24. I feel that stressing different ethnic customs and traditions in public schools tends to reduce learning the basics (i.e.. reading, writing, math, etc.)..... | A | B | C | D |
| 25. Public school teachers should encourage their foreign students to speak in their native language.....   | A | B | C | D |
| 26. It is important for English speaking students to learn how to speak another language.....   | A | B | C | D |
| 27. The public school curriculum, should concentrate more on the development of American society as a whole rather than on specific ethnic groups .....           | A | B | C | D |
| 28. The American public school system=s curriculum should reflect the heritages of the different ethnic groups in our society.....                                | A | B | C | D |
| 29. It is necessary for the schools to use standard English as the only language of instruction.....  | A | B | C | D |
| 30. It is important to celebrate diversity in the public schools.....   | A | B | C | D |